G.R.

Item 530-01 – King George IV (George Rex) – 1828, letter and cover dated Jan 31 1828, endorsed “private”, initialed in the lower left G.R. (George Rex) by the King George IV. Being King of GB also meant being King of the British Colonies including British North America, hence King of Canada. The letter in the hand of the King is addressed to Sir William Knighton. George IV writes “I think it would be as well that Admiral Milne should stay at Bermuda for five or six weeks beyond the usual time”. Admiral Sir David Milne (1763-1845) was a Scottish Royal Navy admiral. Sir William Knighton, 1st Baronet, GCH (1776-1836) was Private Secretary to the Sovereign under George IV (1822–1830). $2,000.00

Item 530-02 – Gaspé Peninsula separatist, Robert Christie – 1853, Legislative Assembly cover paid 6 from Quebec to Haldimand Gaspé via Douglastown. Signed by Robert Christie, an independent. Christie attempted to start a movement in Gaspé to separate from Lower Canada and join the province of New Brunswick. This alienated the voters of the region and he was not re-elected. In died in 1856. Rare. $250.00
