Prince Rupert's Land - Norway House, Lake Winnipeg - June 23rd 1848
Ex de Volpi, Robertson, Wood

Prince Rupert's Land
Norway House
Lake Winnipeg
June 23rd 1848.

My Dearest Mary

The further I go from you the more I think about & love you. Had you before that I was going to leave Canada & proceed to the North West I now am but shall not be long. Left Terrebonne on the 1st May & proceeded by the Northern Brigade of Canoes to consisting of 4 Canoes & 49 men up the Rivier Mattawa & into Lake Nepisiquin thence down the French River into Lake Heron through that a Lake Superior to Fort William when I went up a river of that name to the heights of lands between the waters of Canada & Hudsons Bay. Then down hill through Lac La Pluie, Lac De Bois Lake Winnipeg to Norway House where I now am. In a lengthy account of my journey you can apply to Frances Watters. She writes nice letters to me & has time to read mine, but you are so engrossed with your husband & family that you have no time. Received a letter of yours directed me Brown Factory Ruperts Land which direction I never gave you & the consequence was that although dated October last I only just got it. Proceed immediately across the mountains to Columbia and the journey will occupy 4 months when I get there will send you another letter & tell you my whereabouts. I hope you sent me what things I ordered by the York ship; but I shall not get them for perhaps two years as they will be immediately carried back & remain in England till the Columbia ship <sup>in Vancouver</sup> sails which it does in September & the York ship ~~does~~ does not arrive till October in London so that they will remain till the September following that, and I shall get them in March or April 1850. Pleasant it is not? However on receipt of this letter enquire at Frenchs Street what time the ship starts for Columbia & if you have time get me a suit of clothes made at a cheap establishment viz a Blue cloth dress coat near waist coat (velvet or silk black) and pants of some dark cloth not expensive <sup>& made to fit</sup> if no time to get them made send me a suit of Mathaniels not good enough for him & charge me with them. Also send me that pin sent you if you have not burnt it as I can get rid of it.

Item 506-11 – Prince Rupert's Land, Norway House, Lake Winnipeg – 1848 (June 23), stampless folded letter from Prince Rupert's Land, Norway House, Lake Winnipeg to England via Montreal. The letter is from Charles Beardmore to his wife living in London. Carried privately to Montreal, from where it made its way to London. A very detailed three-page letter describing Beardmore's journey to Norway House, conditions there, his plans (a 4 month trip to the mountains of Columbia), requests for supplies and clothing, and a list of all the articles he is sending by York Boat back to England.

Beardmore starts by mentioning a Northern Brigade of canoes that preceded him consisting of forty-nine men (probably voyageurs) travelling in four canoes. He describes their itinerary as having travelled up the River Mattawa into Lake Mississauga, thence down the French River into Lake Huron. From there the brigade made its way to Lake Superior and then to Fort William (a North West Company fort). From there they canoed down through Lac La Pluise, Lac de Bois, Lake Winnipeg to Norway House" One aspect of this letter may hold a unique position in out-going fur trade correspondence from the period for its very detailed list "curiosities" --the type of Indigenous made articles and material culture prevalent at the time of writing, all of which were on their way as gifts to Beardmore's wife. For example, he writes to her that he is sending: "... in return of Moose and York Factory ships you will receive parcels... A box containing an Indian Fishing net made of cedar bark. In the water they will last near 100 years... [some] Maple sugar, a Cariboo skin dressed in the country which is for a pair of trousers for Nathaniel [his son? Or a relative?], a Watch Pocket worked in beads, an Indian Whip made by the Dog Rib Tribe & belonging to the late Tom [Thomas] Simpson, the Discoverer, a skunk skin, an Indian scalp, an owl stuffed, a few ducks. Also a lot of beadwork.... And a lot of curiosities from the Esquimaux, too numerous to mention. Also a live Esquimaux Dog for Papa or Nath. It is (if you get it) a valuable animal and must be kept up as it never saw cattle and may mistake them for wolves. A deer, Also 3 canoes, one made by the Esquimaux and two Indian bark canoes...."The list continues with many more gifts...

Beardmore then discusses financial matters including the making of a beaver coat. He finalizes with mentioning friends and personal matters of concern. Charles Beardmore was an employee of the HBC and after crossing the "mountains of Columbia" became a clerk at Fort Rupert, where he discovered seams of coal. Beardmore later served as witness in a court case that involved Indigenous groups storming the Fort. The event is written up in the British Columbia Historical News, Vol. 36, No. 1 2002. Ex de Volpi, Robertson, Wood. $4,000.00 SOLD
