As with St. Lawrence & Atlantic Railway, this marking was used while waiting for postmark devices for each railway from John Francis of Clerkenwell, London, England, ordered in August 1858. In 1849, the Toronto, Simcoe & Huron Union RR was incorporated to link Lake Ontario and Lake Huron via Lake Simcoe and name had been changed to the Ontario, Simcoe & Huron Railroad in May 1853. In 1858, the name was changed to the Northern Railway. A very pretty early RPO, struck on front of a cover. Tiny opening tear. $350.00

Item 561-19 – French Regime ephemera – 1750, City of Quebec farmer receipts for taxes for 1749, declaration of sale of a property in Charlesbourg 1757, a receipt signed by De Bretonniere Quebec 1752 and 1725. A receipt or promissory note 1760 or 1770 and a deed or similar for land acquisition signed by Potvin (signed with a "X" dated March 17, 1752). A very interesting group related to Chemin Bourg Royal, Charlesbourg and François, Charles and the Potvin family of Charlesbourg. With some research, perhaps the Potvin family could be identified. An interesting lot and seldom encountered. $1,500.00
