Item 567-59 – The establishment of the first chartered bank in Canada – 1819, autograph letter signed by Rev. John Strachan, Member of the Legislative Council, York UC, to John Macaulay in Kingston. 1pp. 12¼x8. The letter relates to the establishment of the first chartered bank in Canada, in particular a request for enactment of a charter by merchants of Kingston in March 1817 and the other from the Family Compact for a proposed Upper Canada Banking Company to be situated in York. The Family Compact was the informal name given to the wealthy, Anglican, conservative elite of Upper Canada. John Macauley was a former student of Strachan who was living in Kingston from 1819 to 1821. Mailed from York (straight line) to Kingston with waxseal intact. $750.00

My Dear Sir, Mr. William is still here but he would not preach till he has exercised himself in his parish, his voice is very low but he will get louder by exercise. -- I send you a few more answers equally well drawn up. I should have been sorry for the loss of the bank. Bill passed two years ago had it not contained one clause foisted in by its enemies which in my opinion destroyed its advantages. The clause was that a full statement book, all, should be made annually to the Legislature instead of a General Abstract signed by the Directors. This would have exposed all the Secrets of the Company of any person would have given them a secret under such circumstances. -- it is like May day the sun shines beautifully. -- York 8 Feb 1819, Yours -- John Stachan

In March 1817, at the request of Kingston merchants, the Legislature enacted a charter, incorporating the Bank of Upper Canada to be in Kingston. Although the Family Compact through the Rev. Stachan of the Legislative Council requested a charter of incorporation for a proposed UC Banking Company at York, the request was ignored. On June 16, 1819, they again requested and the Council ignored them again. However, at a subsequent conference requested by the Family Compact, the Kingston charter was amended changing the domicile of the Bank from Kingston to York and substituting the subscribers at York for those in Kingston. As a result, the charter was taken from the hands of the Kingston merchants and put into the hands of the Family Compact.

My Dear Colborne

The bearer of this note is a Mr Loscombe of Major Loscombe a great friend of Mr the Painter who has desired me to get letter of introduction.

I am not acquainted with Mr Loscombe but Jones tells me that he has made a marriage which obliges him to seek by his own industry as a cultivator Canada; that his character is unblemished & his education good. ~~and~~ If you see enough of Jones yourself, ^{to judge} you will no doubt form my assurance that he says is true to the very letter, I have no difficulty in recommending Loscombe to your notice; and begging to give him your support in all undertakings as far as you can to others. I know not what may be done for him, nor exactly what purposes he does for himself; and I doubt that you may be asked to do him in case it should be needful have so strong a desire to oblige Jones that I do hope you will be able to forward the young man ^{occurs more} effectually.

As I am uncertain when this may reach you I will not enter into any other subject save to tell you that my 4th vol. is just come out, & that you will have your copy sent to you as usual.
James Moore's life of his brother you have of course seen! Pray remember me kindly to Lady Colborne & believe me to be now as always Yours most sincerely
W Napier

Item 567-60 – Letter of introduction from Colonel W. Napier to Lt. Gov. of UC – 1834, manuscript letter signed by Colonel W. Napier to John Colborne, Lt. Gov. of Upper Canada (1828-1836). 2pp. from Freshford near Bath. In the letter, Col Napier introduces Mr. Loscombe, son of Major Loscombe, at the request of Mr. Jones the Painter. Col. Napier explains that he is not acquainted with Mr. Loscombe, but has been advised by Mr. Jones that Mr. Loscombe has made a foolish marriage which obliges him to seek fortune by his own industry as a cultivator in Canada. That his character is unblemished and his education good. Generally, Col. Napier is asking Sir John Colborne to give his support to Mr. Loscombe in all honest undertakings as far as he can, in justice to others. While serving as Lt. Gov., Sir John Colborne more than doubled the population of Upper Canada by initiating an organized system of immigration to bring settlers from G.B. $350.00
