Lewis Barwell Esq.

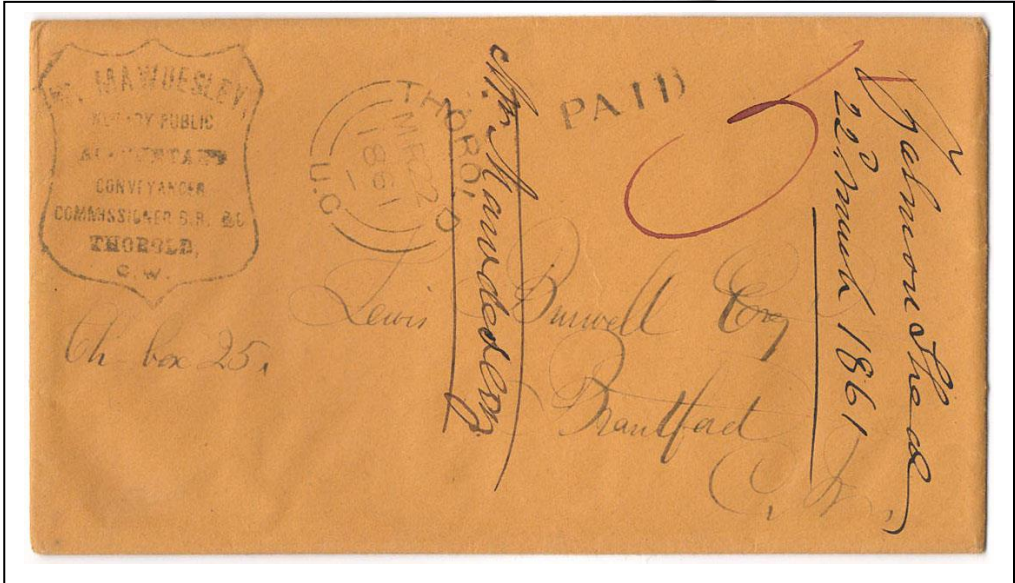

I am requested by Johnson that you should acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 14th inst. and send back some for signature in reply. Would you oblige by sending a certified copy of the original agreement between Messrs Theas & Dutton as the trial is of the impression that all expenses should be paid by Dutton, he is not however certain but thinks so, and wishes to act up to his agreement. With regard to the interest, please find a statement. There is a variance as you will perceive whether I am right or not you will be looking over for an opinion.

I would remark to Mr Theas request that I have been in the habit for some time back of transacting Mr Theas business, else he would have written to you himself as he appears to have a very friendly feeling towards you being, as I understand him, old acquaintance. In early answer will oblige, and should be Poco amable diosa mia, Maria. ? Juan.

Please do not read this letter as it is not for you, it is for my mean old mouse. Si. Oh you most adorable little lover, if you had been with me while reading your letter, you might have received a very severe shower of kisses, yes wet rainy ones, in fact I was so intensely happy I went to my room, to take you out of my hiding place, you see while I am away from my room, I hide your photos so that no one can run away with you. Terrible.? You see there was absolutely no one up stairs being lonesome for you I took you in my arms embraced you very tightly and kissed you very sweetly, this was last night, I had already read your corta pero dulce mean old letter once before eating my supper, so after I just lie down on my bear bed and read over the very dearest letter, half dreaming you were with me, pillows are afully poor substitutes Sometimes I very foolishly say, (having two pillows on my bed) one big one and one is smaller) I do not like never haved in fact, big hard pillows, so I use the smaller one which is a little softer for my hard head, " My speech is the big pillow for my mouse and the little pillow for the mouse's bear. " Dear I was truly very happy after I awoke.

PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION,
Buffalo, N. Y., U. S. A., May 1 to Nov. 1, 1901.

HON. W. I. BUCHANAN, DIRECTOR-GENERAL. EDWIN FLEMING, SECRETARY.

This Exposition will surpass all former enterprises in six important features: (1) In elaborate and beautiful electric lighting effects, using over 200,000 lamps; (2) in the splendor of its hydraulic and fountain effects, a stately canal over a mile long encircling the buildings and all courts having water features of unparalleled beauty; (3) in exquisite horticultural and floral embellishments, a wall of foliage surrounding the Exposition, rare plants and brilliant flowers adorning the grounds; (4) in original statuary and plastic ornamentation—more than 125 large groups of American sculpture; (5) in the richness of its color decorations, all buildings to be tinted in beautiful and harmonious shades; (6) in the magnificence of its court settings, the court area being much larger than at any former exposition, producing vistas of exceptional grandeur. Cost of preparing Exposition, buildings and grounds, including Midway, about $10,000,000. Purposes.—To celebrate achievements of the western hemisphere during 100 years; to promote trade among Pan-American countries; to present a great object lesson showing progress of the western world to date. All the leading Pan-American countries will participate. Site.—350 acres in northern part of Buffalo; 20 minutes' ride from center of city; electric railways on three sides; 26 steam railways have access to Exposition station. Architectural Features.—Twenty large buildings, a free adaptation of the Spanish Renaissance, by way of compliment to Latin-America. Albright Gallery of Art, costing over $350,000, and New York State Building, costing $150,000, of white marble, fire-proof, in the style of ancient Greek temples. Electricity.—Grandest electrical exposition ever held. Beautiful electric tower for display, 375 feet high; 5000 horse-power transmitted from Niagara Falls, 4000 horse-power developed on the grounds. Government Participation.—Appropriation $500,000. Exhibits by all departments, including a life-saving station with daily exhibitions; post-office in daily use, lighthouse in operation, naval and ordnance displays, fish in aquariums, weather signal station in operation, displays by the Mint; special exhibits from the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands, Tutuila, Guam, Porto Rico and Cuba. Special Features.—Stadium for sports, seating 12,000 people. Temple of Music, seating 2200. Leading bands of the world engaged for free concerts. Grand fashionable horse show. Exhibits of the Indians of the Six Nations. Grandest Midway ever produced, over a mile of new amusements, costing $2,500,000. Buffalo.—400,000 population; 26 railways, 250 passenger trains daily; 225 miles asphalt streets; 30 minutes' ride from Niagara Falls; coolest city in summer in the United States. Low rates on all railways during the Exposition. For further information address: Pan-American Bureau of Publicity.
