SAINT JOHN PRICES CURRENT.

SAINT JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK, JANUARY 16, 1869.

FROM
LUKE STEWART,
SHIP BROKER,
AND Commission Merchant.

Chartering Agent in Saint John for Coal Ports in Cape Breton and Pictou to Ports in United States and Canada.

We have the pleasure of handing you here with our Weekly Prices Current, showing the condition of our market for the past week. Our quotations, it should be understood, represent the wholesale prices generally. In the making up of small orders, higher prices have to be charged. All quotations are duty paid, unless otherwise stated.

Commercial Report.

As is usual, at this season of the year, business of every kind is very quiet, and values of merchandise generally remain steady. The weather is fine, and remarkably mild for the time of year.

BREADSTUFFS.—The market for flour is very dull, and prices 10c. to 15c. lower, the demand being light and supply large, with holders pressing to sell. Superfine is selling at $3.60c. to $3.75; some favorite brands bring the latter price, the chief part of the sales being within the range of $5.75 to $5.90. One or two holders are offering superfine at $5.60. Cornmeal unchanged.

FREIGHTS.—There is no new feature to report in deal freights. Scarcely any tonnage offering, with very little disposition on the part

From PORTLAND—
Ex Ellen: 1300 brls. flour, 50 brls. oil.
From BOSTON—
Ex steamer New Brunswick: 300 brls. flour, 20 brls. pork, 50 tubs lard, 21 puns. alcohol, 500 boxes raisins, 20 boxes oranges, 1 piano, 219 pkgs. sundries.

Barnston December 31 1876

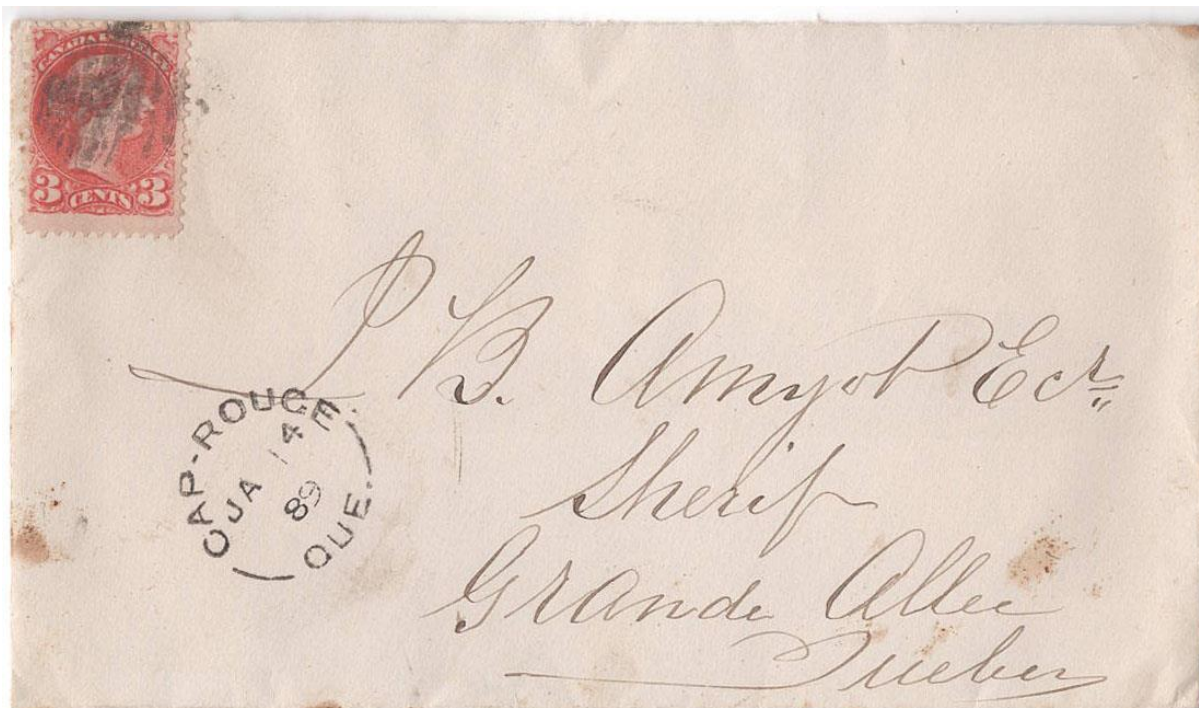

Dear Mrs Russel
i set down to answer your kind and welcome letter which we received last saturday i know that i have been very neglectful
in not righten to you but the reason is my health is very pore and am in fact as though i could not set me down to right i often feel as though i want to right you a good long letter but my dear girl i am not like the same woman that i was before for that dear boy is all ways in my mind and look ware i will i can see ware he have been and his father is just the same As i am for i do not think that he is out of his mind all the time
my dear girl when we lost him
we lost a dear good boy
