Galt, Saturday 9th July 1853

Dear Sir

In accordance with your wishes I write to acquaint you that all about your premises on the Hull are well & every thing here is going on quietly.

I have nothing to report to you about business, all the Farmers are now busy at the Hay harvest & fair weather we could not wish for.

James is now busy in the Garden & after a day's rain he intends to commence to plow the new fallow.

Please to tell Robert that all his Hay will be put in his Barn to night in good condition.

I have nothing further to add & am in the mean time Dear Sir

Yours Sincerely
J. Robertson
