R.M.S. Nascope.
Craig Harbour.

Dear Miss Blunier,

Here is the received letter from the 1 further North P.D. Craig Harbour is a bleak barren place. ice and snow all the year round and infested with Polar Bears, the total population consists of two white men and three Eskimos. This is the only reason for being there - the retention of Ellesmere Island for the British.

The good ship 'Nascope' has sailed 10,000 miles to get this far and is now Southward bound for more cheerful places.

Holiday will be over by
- here's hoping you had to Christchurch and Piccardi.

Good luck,

Yours Sincerely

M. Maurice
