Vittoria 16th Feby 1832

Dear Sir

Your letter inclosing $2 and The Deed memorial to your Daughter I have received & placed upon the file for registry. It appears to me however to be important that a relinquishment of the claim of Wm Crooks estate in these lots should be first registered - as the original registry is from Wm Crooks, in 1865. I regret to suggest any thing to create additional trouble, but am anxious to preserve the whole chains of titles as perfect as possible which I hope will be considered a sufficient excuse.

I am Very Respectfully Yours
Francis Leigh Walsh.

Item 656-01 – Vittoria UC Postmaster free – 1832, Postmaster free-franked letter from Francis Leigh Walsh, postmaster at Vittoria, addressed to James Crooks in Flamborough West. He fought at the Battle of Queenston Heights during the War of 1812 and later sat on the jury at the Bloody Assize of 1814. Walsh (1789–1884), born in Maryland and settled in Norfolk County in 1793, succeeded his father as registrar in 1810, served in the local militia during the War of 1812, and became captain in 1824. He represented Norfolk in the Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada from 1820 to 1828 and again from 1834 to 1836, and was appointed justice of the peace for the London District in 1821 and for the Talbot District in 1838. $250.00

Enclosed is a scathing letter that fiercely denounces an American fur house as dishonest and untrustworthy, blasting its insultingly low valuation of thirty muskrats and one good weasel. Item 656-30 – RAF, Leaside Camp, North Toronto – c.1919, 2¢ Admiral (uncancelled) on Burrard Inlet, B.C. view card addressed to service no. 72673-2, Air Mechanic Second Class Ernie F. The message notes, “I got different reports saying you would be back,”. Camp Leaside, home of the Royal Flying Corps was largely decommissioned in 1919 following the end of the War. Item 656-37 – 3¢ Admiral 12x8 with an important date – 1931, 3¢ Admiral perforated 12x8 tied by Quebec machine cancel on illustrated S.S. Laurentic postcard, dated JY 4 31, overpaying the 2¢ UPU postcard rate to the U.S. The 1¢ Wartax had been reinstated just days earlier, on July 1, 1931, though it applied only to letters, suggesting possible confusion by the sender. The 12x8 provisional was issued on JU 24 31, making its presence aboard the ship remarkable, given that Atlantic crossings in 1931 typically took five to seven days on fast liners (both ways), and up to two weeks on slower vessels. The message notes they are on the St. Lawrence River, likely headed toward Quebec City, enjoying “pretty scenery on both sides.” According to Marler p.532, he has seen one copy on a cover postmarked JY 6 1931 (book published in 1982). He published several philatelic resources, including his weekly A.C. Roessler's Stamp News and the A.C. Roessler Historical Souvenir Air Mail Catalog. Despite his popularity, Roessler was a controversial figure due to his strained relationship with postal authorities, culminating in a suspended sentence in the 1930s for questionable overprinting and cachet practices.
